We are pleased to provide the newest product introductions of The Superior Line for Summer 2011. All models are designed using different materials, well-balanced scaling, and functionality with a specific focus in mind: eclectic, and sophisticated occasional tables and accents covering a wide array of design choices. Materials ranging from Cherry wood species, to metal, to old aged leather, clearly define and differentiate these models from others in the marketplace. With multiple wood/metal finish options and plenty of storage, these new introductions create a new standard of classic appearance for the Superior line for years to come. Please enjoy our newest introductions by Superior!
